EBSTER MUR-DER CASE NOW BEING HEARD

Yesterday afternoon the Webster rder case was called before Judge ty. John Jones is charged with murder of Louis White on the ning of April 5th. The two men into an altercation over insulting guage Jones is said to have direct- to White's wife while the family re seatedon the front porch. The band resented the conduct of Jones stepped off the porch to oppose insults. A fight ensued during ich it is said, bottles, clubs and ns were brought into service. ite was shot dead and Jones fled was followed by a posse of zens, and made his way to Donora ere he was captured by the officers. was turned over to Constable th of Monessen and landed in the al jail and later taken to Greens- g where he was confined for trial. nstable Smith made the information has many witnesses who will nfy to the facts as above related. George Rovnak and Mike Simchek re acquitted yesterday of the mur- of Andy Nemchek who was killed ring a fight in a boarding house on elfth street in March. Nemchek s killed by being struck over the ad with a beer bottle. Robbins d Wyant were the attorneys for e defendants.

D OF THE SMITHTON MURDER TRIAL--WITH JURY

The case of the Commonwealth ainst Sneppard Moore of Smithton s closed last evening. Moore was rged with the murder of Louis bs, and when placed on the wit- s stand said that he shot to injure man and had no intention of kill- him. D. C. Ogden and Ralph rst were the attorneys for the de- dant. They claimed Moore was ane as a result of injuries sustain- a year ago when in a fight he was bbed by Globis Medical experts tified that the injuries to Moore's son were of such a nature as to se insanity. The Commonwealth duced a number of witnesses to ow that the man was sane and that murder was deliberately planned. Globis was shot by Moore the day returned from serving time for the bbing, the tragedy occurred in the ntral hotel bar room at Smithton. first degree verdict is expected.

SPECULATION AS TO VACANCY OF OFFICE

There is much legal specualtion as to whether or not there is a vacancy in the office of County Commssioner as a result of the sentence and imprisonment of John E. Shields. Shields was convicted and sentenced before he was elected to the office of Commissioner and the constitution plainly says: "the will of the people is supreme" while on the other hand the law is that no convict shall hold public office. Here is the point upon which the dispute as to a vacancy will arise and it will likely be many months before the matter is finally settled. Proceedings have been started however and the question will be argued June '2th before the Court which will result in an opinion being handed down. Shields it is understood will put up a fight through his attorney while others express doubt. In the mean time the business of Westmoreland county is left to an incomplete board of commissioners.

BACCALAUREATE SERMOM TOMORROW EVENING

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the class of 1912 of the high school will be delivered tomorrow evening in the opera house by Rev. G. R. Alban, pastor of the United Brethren church. The invocation will be by Rev. H. O. MacDonald and the benediction by Rev. G. H. Eveler. Music will be furnished by the Choral Union and there will be several solos and duets rendered by the members. The girls of the Junior class will act as ushers. The Seniors and the members of the faculty will occupy seats in the orchestra circle.

Woman Dies From Burns

The death of Mrs. Anna Welch at the City hospital Greensburg, Wednesday night, closed the final chapter in the shooting episode of May 6, in which two women were shot by Joseph Lovejoy, Jr., who suicided after committing the crime. The other victim Mrs. Ross, recovered from her wounds. Mrs. Welch done well at first but the bullet from Lovejoy's gun, which plowed along her skull had shattered the bone and despite the fact that an operation was performed for the removal of these fragments the pressure on the brain caused her death.

Local Interest Aroused Over Printing 'Deal'

The light of publicity is being thrown upon an action of the County Commissioners W. Dick Reamer and George Brechbill for alleged violations of the law in letting a contract for public printing. The Morning Review of Greensburg first made public the action of the commissioners and denounced it as a strict violation of both law and honor and this led to scathing resolutions being passed by the Westmoreland county press association at its meeting in Greensburg a week ago. The alleged shady action is brought to light in the story that the Commissioners paid to the Greensburg Tribune and the Mt. Pleasant Journal, 30 per cent in excess of the original bid for pubishing the list of unsealed bonds. These papers were rightfully entitled to the contract, but were not entitled to one cent above the amount stipulated in their original estimate. For the work in question, the actual bid of the Mt. Pleasant Journal was $439. 00, and they were paid out of the county treasury $570 00.

The above facts have been stated in the newspapers of the county apparently after an investigation and no satisfactory denial has been made to clear up the matter in the minds of the people and they are anxious to know the whys and wherefores.

New Real Estate Offices

Offices have been opened in the Brown building on Donner avenue by John T. Swanwick who will carry on a real estate, insurance and mortgage business. Mr. Swanwick has fitted the suite up in a comfortable and cozy style and everything is in tip top shape. He is one of the town's oldest residents and one of its most successful business men and his present venture should prove a decided success. A specialty will be the building of residences for sale.

Be sure to visit the Olympic Theatre today, as the vaudeville is something fine. Singing, dancing, comedy and an aerial artist that surpasses anything ever here. Eats, sleeps, and sits on a chair balanced on a small wire as though on the floor. You will surely be pleased with our pictures. 1t

Independent Telephone Service in McMahan

McMahan borough will soon enjoy additional telephone service. A. H. Lamb manager of the Independent telephone and construction company is busy now extending the line to that borough having been granted a franchise some time ago. This brings the competing concern near enough to Monessen that it will be an easy matter to extend the service into the corporate limit and thus open up the territory up the river which is almost exclusively controlled by the Independent system. There has been much activity this spring in extending the lines of this company and much territory is being added and the system is gradually getting hold of the entire valley. Charleroi for a number of years has had both phones and this spring, Belle Vernon, Donora, McMahan and Monongahela have been added to the list. The service given by this company is the most modern automatic service that can be had. There is one great barrier to a dual telephone service and that is the matter of double expense which stands in the way of rapid progress. Since the Inter State commerce commission has been inquiring into the rate question reductions have been made in the Bell service which has hindered the competing system getting into a number of towns. The investigation has extended into this county which has resulted in a lowering of rates.

PRETTY SOCIAL FUNCTION AT FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL

Mrs. C. M. Lamb gave a card party and six o'clock dinner yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, about twenty-four guests being present. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in the hotel parlors and dinner was served in the spacious and breezy dining room, which was prettily bestrewn with carnations as were also the parlors. Very dainty place cards were used and the dinner was much enjoyed, reflecting much credit upon Mrs. Seanor who gave the arrangement her personal attention. Light refreshments were served at eleven o'clock which closed one of the season's most enjoyable social affairs.

METHODISTS ADD ANOTHER TO THEIR LIST

With both teams presenting an infield somewhat akin to a sieve the Methodist's downed the Christans last evening by a score of 6--5. after the Christian's almost made a draw affair out of it. Stahl of the Christians was wild although he allowed the Methodist's but 4 scattered hits and fanned 8 of the opposing batsmen.

The Methodists scored first in the third inning. Smith and Steckman walked, Gibson filled the bases when he reached first on a fielder's choice. Derby drove in two runs with a single. R. Johnson scored Derby with a two bagger and was out trying to steal third, Zell to Daley. Krepps walked, reached second on some poor base throwing and scored when Winwood singled. A. Johnson closed the inning by striking out. The entire M. E. team batted during this inning. In their half of the third the Christians on a single by Bowers a stolen base and an error by Winwood, scored one. The M. E's came back in the fourth with another one. Steckman walked, stole second and reached third on a wild throw. Gibson's sacrifice fly scored him. For the Christians, Dauvin reached first on Steckman's muff of an easy out, Scott singled, Dale reached first when R. Johnson booted his infield tap around. With the bases full, Zell hit a slow one to short scoring Dauvin, Stahl hit one to Steckman who handled it too slow to catch the runner, Scott scoring on the play. Two more runs were scored in the fifth on two hits and two errors. In the sixth inning the Christians started a rally and after pounding out two hits, the rally was killed in the bud by some slow base running. The score:

MRS. MORRISON'S DAMAGE SUIT LISTED

The case of Mrs. David Morrison against the Page Woven Wire Fence Co., to recover damages on account of the death of her husband some months ago while in the employ of that company is scheduled to come up for hearing in the Greensburg courts the coming week.

Mr. Morrison was a mill carpenter and it will be remembered that in some manner he was struck while at work by a crane and so badly injured that death resulted within a few hours, his wife being left without support and with two small children.

We learn that attorneys on the case have been in Monessen during the past few days looking up the vital points on both sides and considerable local interest is being manifest in the outcome. Quite a goodly sum is being asked for and a large witness list will no doubt be necessary.

Mrs. Morrison is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hileman of Roscoe and a sister of Mrs. George Gibson of Belle Vernon. When Mr. Morrison was killed he carried a small amount of insurance in the Order of Ben Hurs, otherwise the family would have been left in a manner destitute.

The Tribune of Altoona, remarking upon the recent appointment of ex-governor Pennypacker to membership on the State Railroad Commission says: "Pennypacker is a sixteenth century survivor, intruded by some mysterious freak of fortune into the twentieth." Evidently here is another newspaper with an editor who should be quartered and roasted alive, as Brother Berry, the present candidate for State Treasurer, once remarked.

Debs and Siedel are the names coupled together by the Socialistic party, as representing it in the coming campaign for the presidency of the United States. They too, have "thrown their hats into the ring." Their chances for success are about as good as their chance is for going sleighing on the snows that will fall in Monessen during the month of August. But they surely will help to confuse things, and "that will be glory for them."

Those who deposit papers and other things in the corner stones of public buildings should see that they are properly placed or save themselves from bother. The corner stone of a Scottdale church was removed a few days ago and the tin box containing records and other interesting matters was full of water which has rotted the content into a pulpy mass of muddy nothingness.

The Methodist General Conference wants all the membership of the Church to give ten per cent of their income to the Lord. The decrease in membership last year will not be a patch alongside the decrease in membership this year, if such a thing should be expected.

If someone would devise, invent or patent a way for a man to decline placing his signature on the back of a friend's note without offending that friend, the scheme might be marketed at a good profit.

If the dead could come forth and speak, wonder what would be said of the person who steals flowers from other people's friends graves to be placed on the graves of their own departed. It's said there are people for everything.

Washington is going to drive out the turkey trot, but it is likely to retain some things equally as bad. No city ever gets rid of all that is undesirable.

Let the Presidential term be made six years with no second term clause; that would prove the best move made in a century for the good of the country's business.

Travelers now have a fairly good road from Monessen to Belle Vernon. It has been thoroughly ashed and automobiles or teams can get out with fair ease. This temporary improvement was made by the township supervisors with the co-operation of the board of trade and the civic league of Belle Vernon.

The B. & O. ticket office of Finleyville was robbed shortly after noon when the agent, C. E. Martin, was at dinner, and the police are working on the case. The amount taken from the cash drawer was $23.89. The man gained entrance through the ticket window from the men's waiting room by using a small bar to pry up the window.

It is understood that an effort will be put forth to get the Rev. Biederwolf to conduct a series of revivals here during the summer. He is now in Greensburg and is tearing the town upside down. Some think it is too long to wait for "Billy" Sunday since he is booked ahead for almost two years.

With the view that to hold a carnival against the wish of manufacturers and many of the business men and citizens would not be advisable. Charleroi order, No. 133, Loyal Order of Moose, took action at a meeting Thursday to withdraw their application for such an affair, and to cancel their contract. This is a commendable action on the part of the lodgemen and they will receive credit for it at the hands of their fellow citizens.

THE SAVIOR'S TEACHINGS — BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES

TRUTHFUL WORDS — POLITE SPEECH.

Matthew v, 33-37; James iii, 1-12; v, 12. May 26.

"Putting away falsehood, speak every man truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another."—Ephesians iv, 25.

IN today's study we note the contrast between Christ's teachings and those of the religionists of His day. Others attempted to limit the habit of swearing, but the Great Teacher said, "Swear not at all." How foolish is swearing of every kind! We are not, of course, objecting to solemn affirmation or legal swearing as required by law. Note the injunction of the Master, "Let your speech be yea, yea, nay, nay"—anything further implies evil. The Master's meaning evidently is, When you say yes, let it be yes; when you say no, let it be no! Tell the truth! Your friends and neighbors by and by will learn how to value your speech.

In the second portion of our study Saint James exhorts, "Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing that we shall receive severer testing. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body." Saint James seems to say that, while all Christians need to bridle their tongues, those in the more exalted positions are all the more liable to error in this respect. They have a special gift of speech and another special gift of opportunity to use this speech, and so, exerting a wide influence, their responsibility evidently is proportionate.

The Bible isn't true—we are higher critics.

It is not for us to judge ministers or others; there is One that judgeth: the Lord. We greatly fear, however, that many ministers, as well as Christians in humbler stations, fail to fully appreciate their responsibilities for every word they utter or have the opportunity of uttering. Many tell us that for years they preached what they did not believe. How terrible! How stultifying to their manhood! How serious a reflection upon their brand of Christianity!

A Little Match Starts a Big Fire.

Saint James gives some forceful illustrations. Christians should put a bridle of restraint into their own mouths even as they put them into the mouths of their horses.

Not all of us have such wide opportunities for good or evil, but in our homes, in our offices, shops, markets, we may send forth either good or evil influences, far reaching for either happiness or misery, either upbuilding or down tearing character, either of helpfulness or of discouragement. Surely no Christian could be indifferent to this his most powerful member. Saint James suggests that as a match will kindle a great fire so the tongue might start a great furor, a great commotion, and do much injury. He suggests boasting as being one of the most dangerous uses of the tongue. Our experience corroborates this. Boasting often leads us into error and fastens us there because we are not humble enough to acknowledge the fault. It often leads into untruth from which we may have difficulty in escaping. It is an evidence of pride and therefore un-Christlike, improper. Angry words, bitter words, sarcastic words, taunting words, may set ablaze the course of a whole life and impel it with angry force toward the Second Death, Gehenna. Hence Saint James suggests that such evil breeding words are like sparks from Gehenna, tending toward destruction.

The only way by which to have our tongues brought into subjection to the Divine will and made useful as servants of truth and righteousness and love is by having them converted. And since the tongue is but the agent speaking for the sentiments of the heart, it follows that it is the heart that needs to be converted. The power of true conversion, true transformation of character, so that "all things become new," is of God.

Far-reaching influence of bitter words.

The child of God, begotten of the Holy Spirit, has an assistance in the mastering and taming of his tongue that the unregenerate have not. How important then the message, "My son, give Me thine heart." Out of the heart are the issues of life.

Praising God—Injuring Men.

We may know that God will reject the prayers and worship coming from a heart full of bitterness, anger, malice, hatred, envy, strife, and manifesting itself in acrimonious speech. It was Carlyle who described sarcasm as being "the natural language of the Devil." It was Faber who wrote, "No one was ever corrected by sarcasm; crushed, perhaps, if the sarcasm was clever enough, but drawn nearer to God, never." Robertson wrote: "Love is the remedy for slander." Surely the Golden Rule needs to be applied to our speech as well as to our actions.

BASEBALL NOTES

Bowers for the Caristians played a nice game in right field and drove out two hits.

Zell was a little off color in his work behind the bat and was replaced by Dale who livened things up a bit by his advent into the game.

Smith and Derby secured 13 out of the 17 put outs for the Methodists.

Stahl pitched a fairly good game but was a trifle erratic at critical stages.

Winwood seemed to be the only Methodist who could hit Stahl to any extent.

If Dick Dale had started to catch the game there is a possibility that the result might have been different.

A game will be played this afternoon between the Catholics, who are the only team who have not as yet played, and the Baptists, immediatly following the Page game.

A little more "pep" is needed at the games on the part of the players. Last night's affair only went six innings mainly because the players were a little slow in assuming their positions in the field and at bat.

Monday evening the Christians and Lutherans will play a postponed game.

Remember the Concert this Saturday night by the Swedish Lodge No. 53, S. B. of A., in their hall on McMahan avenue and Ninth street. Time 8 o'clock and the price of tickets is 15 cents.

Watch the Olympic all next week. Something new and special every day. The pictures will be unusually fine and plenty of them for an entire evening's entertainment. It

DOCTORS GAVE HER UP

Mrs. Stuart Finally Saved By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Story Interesting.

Elmo, Mo.—"I think your Vegetable Compound is wonderful for it has helped me. I had four doctors and they said I had female troubles and a tumor and nothing but an operation would help me. I could not sit still long enough to eat, and could sleep hardly any I was in so much misery with pains in my side and back.

"A year ago last spring my doctor gave me up, and he was surprised to see me this spring and to see my condition. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise wherever I go for I know I would not be here today or have our fine baby boy if I had not taken it." —Mrs. SARAH J. STUART, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 16, Elmo, Mo.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

PONY EXPRESS AND STAGE COACH

"Buffalo Bill's Wild West, and Pawnee Bill's Far East," coming to Charleroi, Pa. on Saturday June 8th, arouses more than ordinary interest with its picturesquely inviting departure from past ideas of arenic presentations.

The "Wild West" has been strengthened with scenic backings, depicting the locale's, thereby aiding realism as well as characterization.

One of the most engrossing numbers on the program this year, is a new rendering of the "overland stage coach" and "pony express."

The opening of the scene presents the phantasm of a practical frontier settlement, composed of paste-board houses, brush shacks and tents backed by yawning canyons and lofty mountains.

The Express rider with his wiry broncho tucked between his knees and leather bags swung across the pommel of his saddle, is seen riding down the mountain side finally drawing up before the only log building in the settlement, which serves as hotel, saloon and post office, as well as one of the relay points on the overland trail. The carrier leaps onto a fresh pony waiting for him and in a flash, he hits the trail again en route to the next relay point.

After his departure the ponderous stage coach looms around the great buttes and tears down the valley to the hotel, (the only one to be met with in miles of trackless wilderness) the six panting horses are promptly exchanged and off it goes again, carrying its occupant into the unguessed future.

Entering the canyon, a band of marauding Apaches sight the one express rider; they are stealthily leading their ponies to a point of ambush when he spies them, swings round and makes a mad dash back to the settlement, pursurer and pursued riding for very life he meets the stage coach, warns them of the approaching Indians, then dashes head long to the settlement, for reinforcements.

To quickly unhitch the horses, and lead them to a place of safety, then swing the coach across the trail to be used as a barricade, is but the work of moments and the battle is on; showing one of the many frontier fights where the heroism displayed was if possible of a higher order than any shown on battle fields for the pioneer who fought the Indian tribes faced not only death but the certainty, if taken prisoner, of torture before death came to his relief! The conflict rages fast and furious; last the settlers come dashing to the rescue, turning the tide of battle in favor of the defenders who after pursuing the flying marauders, hitch up their horses and coach and mail rider once more proceed upon their journey.

This presentation possesses the true atmosphere of the barbaric and uncontrollable, and helps to make the onlooker realize the cost of reclaiming the fairest territory of our national domain.

Markle's Boat Show Monday

Monday evening, W. R. Markle's well known and popular show boat will be an attraction for Monessen amusement lovers and an entertainment will be given that will more than please all. This elegant floating theatre has made the tour of the leading upriver towns already this spring and we've noticed nothing but commendatory remarks from the valley newspapers; that speaks well for the show and the people operating it. The Markles have an elegant and absolutely high class bill, having the greatest list of headline artists of any boat show on the rivers. Mr. Markle's aim is to ever procure the best, and aside from the personality and the show proper, the equipment of this floating palace is so home-like that it is a treat to be shown through, from the front door to the pantry. Just like home, everything neat, clean and tidy and courtesy is a requisite by the management at all times and by all. Elegant band and orchestral music is carried and free concerts are given each day. This is a show free from everything offensive and perfectly fit for any lady or child to attend. See "ad" elsewhere in this issue.
